Announcements

Welcome to all our members, visitors, and friends here today and welcome to those watching us via Zoom. May God bless all of you abundantly for your love and support of this ministry.

Are you ready for a breakthrough? To prepare for breakthrough, we are having three of our members give the Sunday morning's messages. We began last Sunday with a powerful message from Kathy Linehan concerning dealing with offences. This Sunday we have another dynamic speaker, Dave Jennings, to give the second message. Gwen Darling will speak and minister the presence and power of the Holy Spirit on the 27th. I believe God will use these messages and ministry to release Breakthrough Power in our lives.

Breakthrough Home Groups will be starting September 21st. This is a 10-session home-group study and fellowship. You will be meeting one time per week via Zoom. We will provide a ten-session study guide includes notes and discussion questions We have four groups meeting on different days. See flyer and newsletter for details and registration.

Please be reminded of the following:

- Everyone is required to wear a mask
- During worship and singing – please keep masks on!
- All windows will be opened in the sanctuary during services
- Spaced seating (ushers will assist).

Today's Sermon
Jerusalem to Jericho
The Road we Travel

By Dave Jennings
Yorktown Vineyard Community Church
September 20th, 2020

Today we are blessed to have Dave Jennings bring us the morning's message. Dave is usually active in the sound booth at the back of church, but he is also very capable of delivering the word of God from the front. Dave is married to his lovely wife Yvonne who is also active in the leadership of this church.

I believe God has given Dave a word for us as we embark on our journey of breakthrough. Please join me in giving him a warm welcome and your rapt attention.

Scripture - Luke 10:25-37 – NIV

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

²⁵ On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

²⁶ "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?"

²⁷ He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'¹ and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

²⁸ "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

²⁹ But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

³⁰ In reply Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. ³¹ A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. ³² So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³ But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. ³⁴ He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵ The next day he took out two denarii^[c] and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.'

³⁶ "Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?"

³⁷ The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him."

Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

Who are we in this teaching?

Where does it apply today?
